TEN CENTS A WEEK

NO BEAR KILLED YET

ROOSEVELT MOVES HIS CAMP
TO A BETTER PLACE

WILL CAMP ON BEAR LAKE

Not Discouraged But Thinks There
Was No Chance of a Bear at Former Camp

Stamboul, La., Oct. 11.—Roosevelt camp at the Monticello crossing of the Bayou Tensas has passed into history. The president left the place at 6 o'clock this morning, and when he turned his back on the camp it was with a determination not to return again. He headed toward Bear lake, whence Sunday he will remove to another camp, which will be pitched near Newellton, in Tensas parish, on a branch of the Iron Mountain road.

The change was decided not only because no bear had been killed, but because the president and his friends became convinced that there was none to be killed on the upper Tensas.

They have thrashed the woods, covering the entire country around the Monticello crossing, and it is still doubtful whether any fresh signs of the presence of the bruin family have been discovered.

No member of the party has had the remotest glimpse of a bear, nor have any of the dogs, with which they are supplied, struck at any time a well defined bear track. Mr. Parker emphatically expresses the opinion that there are no bears where the hunt has been conducted.

The president accepts the situation philosophically, saying that the present is not the only search for game that ever came to naught.

LITTLE NIPPON TRUSTS NOBLE ALLY DID NOT HURT HIS HONORABLE TOE.

WAS TEDDY SCARED?

Anyhow, He Was Nervous on the River Trip They Say.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 10.—Local detectives who assisted Secret Service men in guarding President Roosevelt during his day in Memphis say the President was in constant fear of an accident after he left St. Louis. According to their story, the President was calling constantly on the secret service men to keep this or that man back.

Detective Hunt says the secret service men had to use force to get a clear way in St. Louis from the gang-plank where President Roosevelt was boarding the boat.

"A woman yelled at the top of her voice for the President to abandon the trip," Hunt said today.

Hunt says the secret service men noticed that President Roosevelt was nervous thereafter. A day or so later the announcement was made of the suspension of Pilot Nichols of the Fred Harvey, for "reckless navigation."

Drowned in New River.

(Miami Metropolis.)

The body of a white man believed to be one Harry Willberger, of Scranton, Pa., and about thirty-five years of age, was found floating in the north fork of New River at Fort Lauderdale last Sunday. The body was found by Mr. A. F. Snow who secured assistance and carried the corpse to Fort Lauderdale, where it was interred after being viewed by a coroner's jury. The jury has not yet rendered a verdict. Millberger was practically a stranger at Fort Lauderdale and it is believed he committed suicide as he had been acting strangely for several days previous to his disappearance. He is described as being about 5.9 feet in height, weight about 175 pounds and wore a sand mustache. The people of Fort Lauderdale solicit information about deceased.

A. L. McLendon and Geo. Sherwood, employees of the Democrat office, are in Jacksonville today to see Buffalo Bill's wild west show.

EMPEROR SINKS SLOWLY

FRANCIS JOSEPH, EMPEROR OF
AUSTRIANS, NEARS HIS END

PHYSICIANS GIVE UP ALL HOPE

Failing of the Grand Old Man

Vieana, Oct. 11.—This night is a critical one for Francis Josef, the aged emperor of Austria-Hungary. His majesty's physicians are visibly becoming more anxious. The fever which has lasted ten days seems to have exhausted the wonderfully trained system of the monarch and the symptoms of inflammation of the lungs are growing. Five times during the course of today his majesty remained for half an hour in a state of almost complete apathy, while at other times he was in a state of somnolence.

Depression has taken hold of his majesty's entourage and he is watched with the greatest anxiety.

MARRIED HIS GRANDMA.

Who Was Young, Pretty and Rich
and He Loved Her Besides.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from San Francisco says:

Tom Hugh Allison, of Manlius, N. Y., who married his grandmother, is here on his honeymoon.

"My grandfather, Dr. Buffum, of Rochester, was a peppery old fellow," said he. "First he disinherited my sister because she married a barber. This left me his sole heir. He decided to marry, although he was past 80, to keep me from inheriting his estate."

"I didn't know it, but the girl he picked out was my sweetheart, only 17 years of age. She decided to accept, to save the estate for me. That was nearly six years ago. He died a year ago and the young woman whom I called grandmother became my wife."

LEAPS FROM FLYING TRAIN.

With Handcuffs On But Is Soon Recaptured Unhurt.

(Times-Union, 11th.)

Yesterday's Times-Union gave an account of a robbery committed in Middleburg, Clay county, Tuesday night. Also of the arrest made by Deputy Sheriff Buddington of a suspicious character. Sheriff Weeks of Green Cove Springs was notified and came to Jacksonville Wednesday evening, starting back on the 9:49 train with the negro, Will Johnson, alias Will Wright. When the train was within four miles of Orange Park, running at a rate of twenty miles an hour, Sheriff Weeks was seated in the smoker, facing his prisoner, just a few feet in front of him. Suddenly the negro rose and made for the open door of the coach, jumped, and was lost in the darkness. Mr. Weeks left the train at Orange Park and proceeded in search of the negro. He found where he had struck the ground, and followed his tracks toward Jacksonville. Just north of McGirts creek a light was discovered at a turpentine camp. Mr. Weeks secured the assistance of the turpentine operator, living nearby, and together they walked up on a gang of negroes around the fire, who were quite busy battering away at the handcuffs of the escaped negro. The negro again was taken into custody, and yesterday morning Sheriff Weeks landed him in jail. Upon examination the negro was found to have sustained no serious injuries from the leap off the train, simply a good shake-up and some bruises. The negro has confessed that he is the man who broke into the stores at Middleburg Tuesday night.

DIVORCE---CHILD LABOR

AND OTHER SIMILAR TOPICS UP
BEFORE EPISCOPAL CON-VENTION

THEY WILL VISIT JAMESTOWN

Entire Convention Will Journey to The Exposition After
Adjournment

Richmond, Oct. 11.—Greater activity in restricting the marriage of divorcees, a more widespread movement against the child labor evil, the adoption of the much mooted phrase, "the American church" in a preamble to the constitution, and the question of providing for suffragan bishops as against missionary bishops, were among the measures urged in today's proceedings of the triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America. Both houses were in session and a number of the auxiliary organizations held meetings.

The constitutional preamble was voted on by dioceses and adopted by the house of deputies after an hour's discussion. The preamble was reported by Dr. Huntington from the committee on amendments to the constitution. The preamble was the subject of a very vigorous controversy among the clergy and lay delegates, the advocates taking the position that the phraseology "The American Church" does not involve a change of name and the opponents claiming to the contrary.

There will be no session of either house tomorrow, as the entire convention will go on their pilgrimage to Jamestown as guests of the diocese of Southern Virginia.

Tonight banquets were given by the alumni of the Virginia seminary and the alumni of Sewanee.

SENTENCED FOR LIFE Is a White Man Convicted of Murder

Of a Negro.

(Miami Metropolis.)

The only important occurrence in the circuit court this morning was the denying by Judge Jones of the motion for a new trial in the case of the State vs. W. M. Mears, convicted of murder in the first degree at the last term of court, but recommended to the mercy of the court thus saving his life, and the sentencing of the prisoner to the state penitentiary for life. Immediately following the denial of the motion for a new trial, attorneys for the defendant served notice of exceptions, and were granted ninety days in which to prepare and file their bill. Mears was then arraigned and sentence as follows pronounced upon him:

"It is the sentence of the law and the judgment of the court that you, W. M. Mears, be confined in the State penitentiary for the term of your natural life."

Mears was convicted circumstantially of murdering a negro named Smith, and weighting his body in the bottom of Clear Lake, near West Palm Beach, the crime being committed early in the spring.
